

Name Class Date

CLASS WORK

Task 1: Check as True or False the following statements about the sea.

- | | |
|---|--------------------|
| 1) Most of seawater's constituents are organic ions. | True [] False [] |
| 2) All living things on earth could exist without the sea. | True [] False [] |
| 3) The sea supplies food, energy and various resources. | True [] False [] |
| 4) The sea is the largest garbage dump in the world. | True [] False [] |
| 5) About 1.5 billion years ago the first life on Earth emerged from the ocean. | True [] False [] |
| 6) In our houses, wastewater is generated by washing vegetables and dishes, by washing our bodies and hair, and by flushing the toilet. | True [] False [] |
| 7) River and ocean pollution is becoming a serious issue. | True [] False [] |
| 8) Setting a limit on fish catches is one solution against overfishing. | True [] False [] |

Task 2: Match the sentences of column A with those of column B.

1	Sodium and chloride magnesium and sulphate	A	kinds of garbage thrown into the sea
2	The United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea	B	reach the sea and make seabirds and fish suffer
3	Used cans or snack wrappers into a river	C	the most common seawater's constituents
4	Plastic bags, plastic bottles, cooking oil, leftover food, cleaners, empty cans, oil leaked from tankers	D	many important laws designed to protect the sea and to prevent pollution

1 ____ ; 2 ____ ; 3 ____ ; 4 ____ ;

Task 3: Complete the sentences using these words:

sodium; ocean; earth; balance; fish; health; climate; oxygen
--

- 1) In the solar system, theis the only one with oceans.
- 2) The term sea is used as a synonym for.....
- 3) The two primary ions in seawater are and chloride.
- 4) Humans and other creatures that live in the same area maintain a very close, interrelatedwith each other.
- 5) When people catch too many....., this balance is destroyed, and it damages the ocean's.....
- 6) The sea helps balance theof the entire world and releasesinto the atmosphere.